The core temperature is measured from the centre of the meat. For perfect cooking and measuring internal temperatures, we recommend a 'Meater+ Wireless Thermometer'. Available in our pantry now.

Whilst I personally develop, try and test all our recipes and cooking guides, heritage breed animals can vary immensely, therefore cooking times are a guide only. Please ensure all products are cooked through and hot before serving. Enjoy!

method

Pre heat your oven to 160°C / 140°C fan-assisted (gas 3).

Remove your meat from the packaging & pat dry before cooking.

Make a Mirepoix by neatly chopping equal amounts of onion, carrot and celery or my preferred choice of celeriac, the root of the celery plus a bay leaf & a sprig of thyme.

Season the meat with sea salt & cracked black pepper before searing in a little olive oil or rapeseed oil in a casserole dish over high heat until brown then keep to one side.

Next fry the Mirepoix until lightly coloured, add half a bottle of white wine, or a favorite local ale and reduce by two thirds then add 300ml of lamb or chicken stock, 1 tablespoon tomato paste (optional) and reduce a little, thicken with a tablespoon corn flour mixed with a little cold water and stirred into the boiling broth then add the meat to the casserole.

Cover & place in the centre of the oven and cook for 2½ hours, the meat should be tender when pierced with a skewer.

Remove from oven & pass off the juices through a fine sieve into a clean saucepan and reduce to rich, glossy gravy then pour back over the meat ready to serve.

serving suggestions

Serve with boiled potatoes with sea salt & butter.
